

Your German course in Hamburg -

You already have a basic knowledge of German and want to improve your skills? After all, you want to get along better in your new life - at work, with the authorities or with friends. With this German course, you will extend your language skills. You will soon speak German with more confidence and also communicate on more demanding topics - after this German language course in Hamburg!

Suitable for

Adults of all ages with a pre-intermediate knowledge of German, who can also prepare for the TELC test of German

Learning aims

- Refresh your German vocabulary and grammar at our language school
- Deepen your knowledge of German for confident reactions in different situations. The language used for instructions is German. This way, you will become familiar with the German language from the very beginning.
- General conversation in realistic situations, e.g. shopping, telephoning in German, talking about hobbies and interests
- Master more difficult conversational situations in German, e.g. at work or in interpersonal contacts
- In this German course in Hamburg, you will speak in the different tenses: Present, past and future
- With games and sketches in this German course, you will soon speak better German
- After 18 classes, you can continue your German course as long as you wish, getting closer and closer to perfection; it is a good preparation for the telc German test and our German course for advanced learners

Your success in this German course

After this German course, you will feel at home in the German language and be able to express yourself fluently. You will be able to react spontaneously in different conversational situations and express yourself proficiently in German.

All facts: Learning German as a Foreign Language - pre-intermediate

- only € 114.- per month (3 monthly fees), one-time fee of € 33.- for material costs
- Max. 14 participants per German course
- 3 months, 18 times, Mondays and Tuesdays, 6 lesson hours each week and continuing likewise, as long as you want
- Language course flat rate
- Except during the school holidays in Hamburg
- Guaranteed Repetition
- Continuous German courses
- Incl. certificate, German coursebook & follow-up books

